SINGULAR EVOLUTION

The ABACO by CEADDESIGN is a glimpse of what the future of bathrooms looks like. This modular and linear system conceals sanitary functions such as the sink, WC and bidet within a single unit. Made of stainless steel, a high-performance material with anti-bacterial properties for hygiene, it offers an ergonomic heated seat and ease of cleaning.

EXTRA-THICK COUNTERS

There's something soothing about seeing volumes of water and Artelinea's Plissé Legno completely embodies that with its glass basin. A recent product debut by the Italian bathroom brand at the Salone del Mobile 2022 in Milan, this freestanding basin is connected to a wood stand with fluted details to add movement and lightness to the bathroom.
